Baseball Divisions

T-Ball ages 4, 5 and 6, boys and girls: ALL 4 & 5-year-olds; 6-year-olds for whom it is the first year of organized baseball or whose parents wish to keep them in T-Ball a second year. Games are played Saturday and Sundays

Single A (Training League) ages 6, 7 and 8: Soft Incrediball, coaches pitch. 6-year-olds who have played at least one year of organized baseball – NO EXCEPTIONS; all 7-year-olds; 8-year-olds whose evaluation scores do not qualify them for AA or whose parents wish to keep them in Single A (Training League). 2 games per week may be played on weekdays and Saturdays.

AA ages 8 and 9: 8-year-olds who have played at least one year of Single A (Training League) and whose evaluation scores qualify them for AA; all 9-year-olds whose evaluation scores are not high enough for AAA. The League strongly encourages all 8-year-olds to have played at least 1 year at the Single A level.

AAA ages 9, 10, and 11: 9-year-olds whose evaluation scores are high enough for AAA; all players 10 & 11 whose evaluation scores are not high enough for Major Baseball.

Major Baseball ages 10, 11, and 12: all 12-year-olds; all who played Major Baseball last Spring, plus 10 & 11-year-olds whose evaluation scores are high enough for this league. If you have concerns about your 12-year-old playing Major Baseball, see contact information below or you can speak to someone at walk-in registration.

50/70 Baseball age 13 only: All 13-year-olds will play in this new District 8 travel league

Jr/Sr Baseball ages 13, 14, 15, and 16: Evaluations and team selection in late April. Teams will play in the District 8 Travel League. Once teams are established, any new registrants will be placed on a waiting list and are not guaranteed a spot on a team. Only 13-year-olds who have played modified baseball will play at this level.

Softball Divisions

Training Softball ages 6, 7 and 8: Soft Incrediball, coaches pitch. All 7-year-olds; 8-year-olds whose evaluation scores do not qualify them for Minor Softball or whose parents wish to keep them in this league.
